Yurts

Yurts are circular wooden shelters of Mongolian and Turkish origins. Both yurts have outdoor fire rings, picnic tables, and composting toilets. They do not have running water or electricity.

Corroboree

Our 30 foot diameter yurt ideal for gatherings, retreats and camping overnights. It can sleep 15 or seat 30 adults and is accessible by road when there is no snow. There is a propane heater to provide warmth on cold days. *$150.00/day

Nedoba

Our smaller yurt is 14 feet in diameter and an ideal place for personal and family retreats or as a base camp for group camping. It sleeps up to 3 adults and has space nearby to set up tents and tarps. *$75.00/day
